

Black History Month & Paul Cheatham II Birthday Celebrated February 2020

Photo taken at Mayor's Office, Mesa, Arizona on February 6, 2020, the Eve of our founders birthday. Left to right: Shuntay Smith, Director of Outreach Services, Yvonne Rich, Program Director, Mayor John Giles and Sekou S. Dukuly, KIKS Vice President and CEO.

A special shout out to John Giles. Mayor. City of Mesa, Arizona For his hospitality during our visit on February 6. Thank you for your support.

-- Sekou S. Dukuly, Vice President/CEO, Yvonne Rich, Program Director, Shuntay Smith, Director/Outreach Services.

photo by "Izzy", Studio 1405, Vallejo, Calif..

With gratitude, love and respect, I would like to thank everyone who helped to make my birthday wish come true: To Celebrate my 74th Birthday party with VP/CEO, Sekou Dukuly, Mesa, Arizona and via satellite host parties in Africa. Poor blind children and adults at the United Blind Association, Monrovia, Liberia. My immediate family members. In Freetown, Sierra Leone, my son Abraham (aka) "Preacher Man" partying with his kids in the village of Bunbon, Northern, Ghana and last, but not least, my OG son Mpho, and his group of kids Celebrating in Soweto (Home of Father Nelson Mandela), Johannesburg, South Africa. All praise to our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, Respectfully,

Paul Cheatham II, (aka) Chief Nana Zawanah, KRU Man, Grand KRU Country, Liberia, West Africa

Abraham Jagba holding his Godchild, Philipa, in the village of Bunbon, Northern. Ghana.

Sekou's (Duke's) family members, Freetown, Sierra Leone: Mariama, Abriahim S, Adama S, Mawatta S, Paula C, and Mayatta S. Dukuly

Celebration in Soweto, South Africa

Mpho Makhubo and son Jelani Dominic

Project KIKS Director, Alimou Kai Stevens & Deputy Director, Sekou Fofana amongst members of the United Blind Association, Monrovia, Liberia

