

Project KIKS Mexico

Country Director, Ivan Lopez reports

We continue to support the indigenous children and families, served by Comunidad Loyola Foundation. Those at risk of domestic violence, child abuse, during the Coronavirus outbreak, located in Guanajuato, Central Mexico.

Loyola provides comprehensive support services to improve the quality care & life for under privileged youth.

Comunidad Loyola staff and children find ways to stay active in a healthy, safe and positive manner; despite the COVID-19 pandemic. Here we share with you pictures of the Children of Loyola at summer camp. Special thanks to Lic. Ana Belem

Project KIKS Ghana, West Africa

Despite the COVID-19 Epidemic, Country Director, Abraham Jagba (aka "Preacher Man") was able to complete a Masters Degree in Education at the University for Development Studies, on September 7, 2020. He is a prodigy of Project KIKS and teaches at TanTaLa Da, Junior School in Northern Ghana. He will be promoted to Head Master of his own school, early 2021. Congratulations, we are so very proud of you.

Country Director Abraham Jagba reports September 25, 2020

For the past several weeks, rainfalls and floods continue to ravage our farmland and crops. Our Hunger & Famine Prevention Activity has been severely compromised. As a result, villagers will be unable to harvest crops in 2021. Our goal is to help farmers become self sufficient and increase food security in Tatale, Northern Ghana.

Country Director, Mpho Makhubo reports October 4, 2020

Good Day. We are still on lockdowns, however, the government is now easing restrictions. They have opened international and local travel. My wife Lydia and one year-old son are well.
